Login Option 1

When the user clicks on Login they will be taken to this first option where they will have an opportunity to enter their email address and password... If they do not have a login there will be links available to click to be taken to the Sign Up option...

Sign Up Option 2

When the user clicks on Sign Up they will be taken to this second option. From here they can create an account or they will also be given a link to take them over to the Login page if they already created an account.
